

Keswick and Bassenthwaite

The tourist 'honey pot' site of Keswick provides a wealth of sites for human geography and tourist impact studies. The surrounding woodland and moorland offers a range of opportunities for fieldwork centred on glaciation, river and soil studies. There is an interesting and varied geology.

A range of sites is easily accessible from the A66.
Coach parking is available in Keswick.